

IPC Global Income & Growth Portfolio

You need a consistent monthly income stream that is derived from a blend of equities and fixed income to give you a total return including income yield. The IPC Global Income & Growth Portfolio has multiple income sources, including Canadian and global dividend income plus total return from concentrated equity strategies. On the fixed income side, the Portfolio includes an unconstrained global fixed income component to invest in income-yielding opportunities around the globe with the ability to adjust to changing market conditions and optimize holdings for the current environment. The asset mix includes a prudent allocation to a liquid alternative fund that uses an expanded set of investment tools, seeking to deliver a positive total return over a market cycle by investing in long and short positions in global corporate and government fixed income securities.

Key reasons to invest in this portfolio

- Multiple income sources to provide a reliable income stream for investors.
- Blend of total return and dividend equities for performance across full economic cycles.
- Unconstrained global fixed income component able to source yield opportunities in changing market conditions.
- Fixed monthly distributions.
